BOTTLED-IN-BOND

In 1897 The United States Government Passed The Bottled-In-Bond Act Which Created A Set Standard Of Production For Distilled Spirits. At The Time Distillers Were Undercutting Whiskey With Neutral Spirits Colored With Wood Chips, Iodine, Glycerin, Formaldehyde And Many Other Substances.

To Ensure A Spirit Was Authentic, Any Product Being Labeled As "Bottled-In-Bond" Must Meet The Following Guidelines:

- Be The Product Of One Distillation Season By One Distiller At One Distillery*
- Aged In A Federally Bonded Warehouse Under U.S. Government Supervision*
- Must Be Aged At Least 4 Years*
- Bottled At 100 Proof*
- The Bottle Must Identify The Distillery & Place Of Bottling*
